

50 new meanders for the Geer River (Belgium)

SAR Consult managed one of the most important river restoration project in Belgium, near Waremmes. The idea was to create new meanders, wetlands, and others special habitats for biodiversity.

The aquatic plants play a great role in this project, providing water treatment and then improving the water quality.

The project is now highlighted for the public and some beavers have installed their family nearby.

Press (News paper) : http://www.lavenir.net/cnt/dmf20140123_00421959

Press (TV): <http://www.rtc.be/reportages/environnement/1450442-le-geer-retrouve-ses-meandres-et-plus-de-biodiversite>

